Wonder if Admiral Cervera will favor an exchange of Hobson now?

This trying to sneak away from Commodore Schley is a warm piece of business for Spaniards.

Where is the man who will complain about the efficiency of the American navy now? With a few more battleships and swift cruisers Uncle Sam could exclaim "the world is mine"—if I want it.

The Republicans are likely to have a safe majority in the Senate of the next Congress. That is why the majority in the House should be held if not increased. The Republicans of Ohio must do their duty this year.

Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, was the first American shot by the Spanish in Cuba. He was shot through the heart and died instantly. Fish was a millionaire and went to war because he believed that Spain needed a good thrashing.

If Spain gets too "sassy" the American navy may conclude to go over and blow her off the Eastern hemisphere. Our Venetians may conclude to cough up a few dynamite lozenges upon the crumbling nation and the boy king will be out of a job.

Editor W. E. Escott of the Bourbon Mirror was home to enjoy the holidays. He has shipped his household goods to the Indiana home, and will commence housekeeping this month. Mrs. Escott, and the baby, who have been visiting Capt. Root's family for some time past returned with Mr. E.

The North Baltimore Beacon has the following to say about E. L. Kingsbury, Perryburg's candidate for Sheriff: Friday afternoon of last week Ed. Kingsbury, of Perryburg, was here on political business. Mr. K.'s name will go before the Republican convention for the nomination for sheriff. Ed. is well known in political circles and will be a strong candidate.

It may seem funny to place your first revenue stamp on a check or official document, but the novelty will soon wear off, and then it will become a burden, and complaints will begin to come in.—B. G. Tribune.

But when it is remembered that the money expended for the stamps is used in paying for the powder that destroyed the Spanish fleets, the "funny" part will return and the "complaints" will not be heard among patriotic citizens.

It would seem that the American navy from the highest officer to the common sailor, did not know how to forget, nor fear to avenge the sinking of the Maine. Those wrecks of the flower of the Spanish navy will look as well to Spanish eyes as will the wreck of the Maine to the eyes of liberty loving Americans. But no amount of Spanish wrecks can wipe out the diabolical crime perpetrated by the destruction of those noble American sailors who supposed they were safe in the harbor of a friendly nation.

Evidently there is another editor whose heart has become petrified and whose soul has become thoroughly imbued with the chilling idea that politicians are of a promissory class. Bro. Runnels of the Bradner Advocate writes as though the world had not proven true to him, if we are to judge by the following editorial taken from his paper:

We fail to see why a country editor should howl himself hoarse for any particular candidate when he is running for office unless he pays for the same before the goods are delivered, for if a winner, he has promised many things and is apt to forget them as easily as he made the promises, and the chances are two to one that the county seat paper will get that which belongs to the country editor in the way of notices, sales, etc. If the country editor is onto his job he will collect his pay in advance and he will not be looking for something promised.

That Spanish fly of Admiral Cervera was not up to standard. It didn't work well.

Hawaii is now a part of the U. S. The vote was taken Wednesday. The existing government of the island is to continue, and Chinese must keep out.

Fifty of the 400 Spanish prisoners on board the Harvard secured arms and made a dash for liberty but were soon quelled by the shooting of a few of their number.

Very shortly after that Spanish fleet arrives at Manila Admiral Dewey will report its location, which will probably read something like this:—"The latest arrivals from Spain are now registered with 'Davy Jones.'"

When it is remembered that every man of Admiral Cervera's fleet was either killed or made prisoner and that only one American was killed, there is no wonder that all other nations are ready to take their hats off to Uncle Sam.

It is to be hoped Toledo will not let politics interfere with the success of the Ohio Centennial. It is a very difficult thing for any municipal committee or board to do business in Toledo without working in a little politics, but it certainly would seem that the Ohio Centennial should not be injured by any neglect of Toledo's committee and citizens.

It will be well for business men and others to remember that on and after the 1st of July a person who fails to attach a two-cent war revenue stamp to a bank check is liable to a heavy fine. Under the law that goes into effect on that day such an omission is a misdemeanor. The banks will issue checks with stamps engraved upon them, to be sold at the price of the stamp.

DIED.

TAYLOR.—Conway Springs, Kan. July 4, 1898, Eliza Averill Taylor, son of Chauncey C. and Eliza W. Taylor, aged two years, nine months and nineteen days.

Death of Mrs. John Eberly.

Mrs. Rosina Eberly died on the 3d of July, 1898, aged 73 years, 6 months and 13 days. She was born in Weinfeld, Baden, Germany, and was united in marriage with John Eberly in 1818, and came with her husband to Perryburg in the same year.

They joined the German Methodist church under the administration of Rev. P. F. Schneider. Mrs. Eberly was an earnest and faithful member of the church and Ladies Aid Society, and during her illness the past two years often regretted her inability to attend the services, though showing her continued interest by always being ready to contribute financial aid to the church and its charitable institutions. She leaves two sons and five daughters to mourn the loss of their good mother, all of whom were present at the funeral, except Mrs. Robert Pyles, of Brunswick, Ga., who was unable to reach home in time to attend.

Her husband and five children preceded her to the heavenly home, where she has now joined them.

The funeral services took place at the residence on Second street, and were conducted by Rev. Jacob Braun, present pastor of the German M. E. church. The remains were laid to rest in Fort Meigs cemetery.

PLEASANT WAY TO DUN.

Delinquent Customer Pays Up on Receipt of a Poem.

A Cleveland hardware man, prompted by an article recently on the subject of collecting poor accounts, writes agreeing that more is to be accomplished by a dunning letter couched in good-natured language than one breathing threats in harsh words, and relates the following, says Hardware, as an illustration:

"It was our custom to have a new clerk put in his spare time writing letters to slow customers. A clerk's merits were measured largely by the result of this work. Up in Michigan we had a particularly bad case. It was a bill of $12 against a man named William Rose. It had become outlawed, and was considered a dead duck, but every once in awhile we gave it a whirl. Finally one day, the last clerk put on a bright young fellow, laid the following verses on my desk and asked permission to mail them to Rose:

"Oh, William Rose, oh, fragrant rose, Yourself it is he surely knows Unsettled bills are bad. They soil our books, they spoil our looks, And make the heart grow sad. So William Rose, feel in your clothes, And find twelve dollars there. The goods were sold in days of old Before we had white hair. "They were forwarded, and inside of a week the man sent us the money, explaining that he had always intended to pay the account some time, but couldn't hold out no longer against such a demand."

The war has called out the best efforts of loyal women to provide for the physical comfort of their male relatives or friends who have gone to the front, and the different schemes for ameliorating the hardships of camp life or the dangers of actual fighting are as multitudinous as feminine ingenuity is widespread and active. The palm, however, for novelty must be awarded to the loyal Iowa women who are going to help defeat Spain by furnishing ear muffs for our gallant tars. The deafening roar of heavy ordnance is not without its dangers to the permanent hearing of those in close gun-service, and there are occasions when looks may be safely sacrificed to utility. A tiger for the ear muffs.

A Boston man has been sentenced to four years' imprisonment for stealing 72 cents. The judge probably thought it would be dangerous to permit a man at large who didn't know enough to take more than that.
